COMMONWEALTH GAMES 2010

Congratulations to Laura Edwards who has been selected to represent England in the Commonwealth Games in Delhi this coming October.

Throughout September leading up to the games Laura will train weekly at Lilleshall National Sports Centre with her personal coach along with the rest of the England team.

Laura will travel to Delhi at the end of the September and her first competition will take place on 1st October.

From all the coaches and staff we wish Laura the best of luck in what is her first major multi sport event!

Please keep a close eye on dynogym.co.uk and the facebook from updates from Delhi.
